ECONOMIC NEWS HIGHLIGHTS

* The dollar edged lower and Treasuries gained as investors considered the potential for further churn of White House personnel. European stocks and U.S. futures drifted after Asian shares slipped, with equities traders showing little conviction.

* U.S. new-home construction cooled by more than expected in February on a reversal in the volatile multifamily category, while building remained on pace to contribute to economic growth this quarter, government figures showed Friday.

* Ten years ago today, JPMorgan Chase & Co. announced it would buy collapsing investment bank Bear Stearns Cos. for pennies on the dollar after a weekend of emergency talks brokered by the government to avert a financial crisis.
